

Leicester University of Leicester Oadby Student Village

From its origins as an important Roman settlement to a successful industrial city, Leicester boasts a colourful 2,000 year history. Its position at the heart of the country has made it a convenient meeting place for famous figures over the centuries including King Richard III, King Henry VI and Cardinal Wolsey. It is a city bursting with arts, culture, history, festivals and attractions. From ancient Egypt to outer space exploration, Leicester has something for everyone.

Safety and Security

Safety and security are important to everyone at Magnifico. All students have access to a group leader* and each student is given a handbook and an orientation session when they arrive. The Centre Manager and staff will be happy to help with any questions you may have regarding your stay at the campus.

Each student will be asked for a deposit of £50.00. This is for any damage caused during their stay. Lost keys or key cards must be paid for separately.

*If any student arrives without a Group Leader, Magnifico will provide one.
